

Sharif Persaud: Have You Ever Had

28 February – 23 May 2019

Autograph, Rivington Place, London EC2A 3BA

Free exhibition

Placing himself at the centre of his work, Persaud explores identity through his experience of contemporary life and autism. Have You Ever Had the culmination of the UK-wide EXPLORERS Project, highlighting the extraordinary contribution neurodiverse people make to art and culture.

This is Persaud's first solo exhibition, featuring his drawings, large paintings and award-winning short film The Mask.

Read more <http://bit.ly/2PwHAs5>

Gallery open Tue – Sat

Everyone is welcome at Autograph, we are an accessible venue.

Download our detailed Access Guide with photographs of the building at: <http://bit.ly/2DF11bE>

Exhibition Events

Relaxed Wednesdays

Every Wed 11am – 6pm

Free, read more <http://bit.ly/2tLWdzi>

Disability and Visibility: Ways of Being

A month of pop-up exhibitions and events

28 Feb – 31 Mar

Read more <http://bit.ly/35ICLBg>

Common Threads Thursday Late

Talks & more at our late gallery opening

27 Mar 6 – 9pm

Free, RSVP at <http://bit.ly/2SonQrO>

Exhibition Tour with British Sign Language Interpretation

2 Apr 7 – 8pm

Free, RSVP at <http://bit.ly/2ORoJXE>

Exhibition Supported by projectart works

EXPLORERS project

